Name MARCY GRAY

Date JANUARY 17, 1997

Event TEEN SOCK HOP

Location KENWOOD TRAIL JR. HIGH GYM

Did the Disc Jockey dress properly for the occasion?

Yes - Very appropriate If even offered to dress like 50's/60's theme to make evening more authentic.

How well did the Disc Jockey control the music volumes throughout the event?

Did the Disc Jockey play a good variety of music?

The variety of music was fantastic. He mixed the music between country, disco, 50's through 90's. If there was a lull, he'd insert something else to liven his audience. Met with sponsoring group prior to dance to get a feel for what their expectations were for the night.

How well did the Disc Jockey help to coordinate the event?

Mr. Poole not only made up flyers advertising the dance but was very helpful in suggesting various games and dances that would ensure everyone having a good time.

How well did the Disc Jockey interact with your guest?

Mr. Poole interacted with all students and staff members. He was there to entertain and he sure accomplished that. Students were so interested in what was happening in the gym they forgot about food and drink that was available. The crowd never got bored.

How would you rate the appearance of our equipment?

The equipment was tops. The light show was the most fascinating show I have ever witnessed.

How would you rate our sound quality?

The quality of sound was excellent.

On a scale of 1 to 10, 10 being the best, how would you rate our overall performance?

The overall performance exceeded our expectations 10 all the way.

Would you recommend Quality Sounds to your friends and relatives?

Could you offer us any comments or suggestions that could better our service in any way?

The only suggestion I may have is for those planning the event - Don't worry about all the extra things, i.e. food, pop, etc. to accompany the music it's not needed.

Thank you for your time. This company is a very important part of our lives. We want to be the best we can be. However, it is sometimes difficult keeping everyone entertained at an event and your comments are an important part in helping us achieve our goal. Thanks again...
